CLERK OF COURT
KENTON, OHIO

IN THE HARDIN COUNTY MUNICIPAL COURT
KENTON, OHIO

IN THE MATTER OF Jury Trials

ORDER

*****

It is hereby ORDERED, that the following rules will apply to all jury trials during the COVID-19 crisis;

1. No spectators will be allowed in the building during a jury trial;
2. Only necessary parties will be allowed in the Court, which are the Plaintiff, Defendant, and Counsel, as well as the jury;
3. All witnesses will check in with the Clerk and will be placed in the counsel chambers to await their call into Court;
4. No parties will be allowed to sit in the hallway during the trial;
5. No spectators or family members will be allowed in the City Building;
6. If there are any demonstrators at any jury trial they will not be allowed on City property other than the sidewalks to the north and east side of the City Building so as not to violate any social distancing policies concerning the jury trial; and
7. This order shall stand for all jury trials before the Court until further order of the Court upon the termination of the COVID-19 emergency.
